

Terms and Conditions

Make the most of your success

Enter the Awards for Excellence in Real Estate

All information set out in this document forms the Terms and Conditions of entry for the 2024 REISA Awards for Excellence in Real Estate

The nomination process

To ensure optimum nominations, the Awards have a simple nomination.

1. Self-nomination – entrants nominate themselves
2. Professional nomination – Torrens Award only

Prizes

Significant changes have been made to many of this year's questions. Please read all questions carefully and refer to the 'Submission Hints 'n Tips Guide' to assist you in writing your entry.

Winner Silver and Bronze awards will apply to all categories except the Torrens Award and Community Service Award.

Achieving Winner, Silver, Bronze, or finalist status in the REISA Awards for Excellence provides a powerful marketing edge and rewards those profession members who have elevated the good name and reputation of real estate. The Awards process aims to recognise excellence in the real estate profession and provide mentors for future generations of practitioners.

Each category Winner will receive:

- A trophy and REISA certificate
- A marketing pack including REISA Awards for Excellence winner logos
- Each Silver and Bronze Award recipients will receive:
- A marketing pack including REISA Awards for Excellence Silver and Bronze status

Each finalist will receive:

- A marketing pack including REISA Awards for Excellence finalist logos

In addition, winners and finalists will be featured in and receive publicity on the REISA website.

How to enter

Step 1

Check the Awards for Excellence criteria for each category by visiting www.reisa.com.au under the Awards section.

Step 2

Check the eligibility requirements for the Awards for Excellence category you wish to enter. You MUST provide a membership number.

Step 3

Prepare your submission addressing each question as stated in the criteria. Remember to check your word count, spelling, and comprehension. We recommend preparing this in a Word document first.

Step 4

Create your own account and password at the awards online portal by visiting www.reisa.com.au and following the prompts to the portal. Enter your details to create a user login and password.

Step 5

Once you have completed step 4, a confirmation email will be sent to you with your username and password for future reference.

Step 6

When you are ready to complete your online submission, login to the awards portal using your login and password. Upload your online submissions and include any additional attachments.

- In individual categories, the entrant and contact names must be the same, not a PA or agency admin representative.
- You must upload at least three images and a high res version of your logo for each category you enter to be used on the awards night

Step 7

Your submission will be kept in the Awards portal and can be worked on at any time during the submission process.

Step 8

Your final submission must be received no later than COB Monday 29th July, 2024.

Eligibility

To be eligible to win a 2024 REISA Award for Excellence in any category, you must be a current member of REISA.

Winners must be bound by good ethics reflecting the REISA Real Estate Code of Conduct.

By entering the Awards for Excellence, you declare that: As a nominee, there are no matters which are currently being investigated or pending investigation through Consumer & Business Services

- Nominees must not have had any matter recorded by Consumer & Business Services in the past 24 months
- As a nominee, there are no matters which are currently being investigated or pending investigation through REISA's Professional Standards Committee
- Nominees must not have had any matter recorded by REISA's Professional Standards Committee in the past 24 months

A false declaration may result in disqualification from the Awards or revocation of any Award.

For additional eligibility requirements, please also refer to the criteria document for the category or categories you wish to enter.

REISA's decision is final, and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into regarding individual submissions or choices of finalists or winners.

Entrants must not contact judges to discuss or influence the judging process. Such contact will result in disqualification.

In the event that no submission in a category meets the requisite standard of excellence, no finalists will be chosen, and no Award will be given.

Agreement to enter

I agree to comply with all T&Cs as outlined in the rules stated in this document.

Please upload electronically signed form with your entry.

For more information:
awards@reisa.com.au

