

Revolution 2026: Future Fit: REISA's Industry Conference

Tuesday, 24 June 2026 | National Wine Centre, Adelaide | 8:00am – 6:30pm
Members $99 | Non-members $125

The real estate industry is being reshaped by technology, shifting markets, evolving expectations and the accelerating pace of change. Revolution 2026 brings together the leaders, thinkers and practitioners who are not just surviving this transformation they are defining it. Future Fit is about equipping professionals with the mindset, skills and strategies to thrive in the industry ahead.

OPENING SESSION

Jacob Caine and Cain Cooke

President, REIA and REISA Chair

National Landscape

As President of the Real Estate Institute of Australia, Jacob brings a national perspective on the forces shaping the industry from policy headwinds and regulatory pressures to the opportunities emerging in a market in transition. Cain brings a sharp lens on the local landscape and together they will discuss and identify the opportunities that will define the next chapter for South Australian professionals.

"The National Landscape: Headwinds and Opportunities"

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Professor Toby Walsh

ARC Laureate Fellow & Scientia Professor of AI,
UNSW Sydney | Chief Scientist, UNSW.AI

National Landscape

One of the world's leading AI researchers, Professor Toby Walsh has addressed the United Nations, heads of state, parliamentary bodies and the National Press Club on the profound opportunities — and real risks — of artificial intelligence. A Fellow of the Australian Academy of Science, named on the international "Who's Who in AI" list, and author of five books on AI for general audiences (including his latest, The Shortest History of AI), Toby's keynote will cut through the hype and give real estate professionals a grounded, expert view of what AI means for their business, clients and career.

"AI: Boom or Doom? What real estate professionals need to know"

Register Now

Revolution 2026: Future Fit: REISA's Industry Conference

FUTURE SESSIONS

Chris Hanley OAM

Principal, First National Byron Bay

Perspective & Wisdom

With four decades in real estate and an Order of Australia Medal to his name, Chris Hanley is one of the most compelling voices in the industry. Founder of the world-renowned Byron Writers Festival, sought-after keynote speaker across Australia, New Zealand and Asia, and a mentor to generations of agents, Chris draws on deep experience and lateral thinking to explore what the past reveals about the path ahead.

"Looking Back to Look Forward"

Caitlin Guilfoyle

Performance & Leadership Specialist

National Landscape

In a profession defined by external pressures regulation, market volatility and shifting expectations, Caitlin's session offers something rare: a practical, evidence-backed framework for sustaining high performance over the long haul. She explores how professionals can reclaim control of their time and energy, make meaningful shifts in how they work and lead, and build the kind of longevity the industry genuinely needs.

"Operating at Your Best: Performance, Resilience and Longevity"

Sam Dighton

Committee for Adelaide

Future SA

Population growth, migration, workforce strategy - the building blocks of a thriving South Australian economy are also the foundations of a thriving real estate market. Sam unpacks the economic and demographic forces shaping our state, and what a truly Future Fit South Australia looks like for the property industry.

"Future Fit South Australia"

Adam Blight

Property Management Leader

PM Evolution

As property management is transformed by automation, compliance complexity and rising expectations, the professionals who will define the future are those who lead with emotional intelligence, adaptability and genuine relationship skills. Adam makes the compelling case for why the soft skills are the survival skills and how to build them.

"The Future PM: Soft Skills, Hard Results"

PANEL SESSION - THE FUTURE OF SALES

Matt Smith and Brad Allan

Award-winning residential sales agent

Future of Sales

As two of the industry's most recognised sales professionals, Matt and Brad bring hard-won insight into what it genuinely takes to perform at the top level and sustain it. Their experience navigating shifting market dynamics and evolving client expectations makes them both a voice of grounded authority on where the profession is heading.

"The Future of Sales panel"

Register Now

